The Portrey Memorials

Two memorial stones on the East Side of the Church name five of the Portrey Family, Joseph (father), Martha (mother) and three of their children Richard Watson, Jabez Bunting, and Robert Newton.

Joseph Portrey was Superintendent Minister of the Windsor & Maidenhead Circuit and it was while in Windsor that his son, Richard, died and was interred here at High Street in April 1869. However shortly after being transferred to the Shaftesbury Circuit, Joseph himself died and his remains were brought back, by train, to be interred at High Street in October 1880. Within a year Martha, Joseph's widow, died and was also interred at High Street. Tragedy then struck the family as the two remaining sons, Ministers of Religion, both died - Jabez Bunting Portrey in Adelaide and Robert Newton Portrey in the West Indies. The latter having been married in September 1881 leaving a widow Alice (nee Pearce) and no children. The only surviving child of the Portrey family being their daughter Susannah Wesley Higgins with her three young daughters Helena Victoria, Susannah Portrey and Josephine Alice.

Joseph and Mary Portrey's four children were named after four significant figures in the history of Methodism:-

Richard Watson (1781 - 1833) Active in the formation of the Wesleyan Missionary Society and President of the Conference in 1826

Susannah Wesley (1669 - 1742). The Mother of the John and Charles Wesley

Jabez Bunting (1779 - 1858) Founder of the Wesleyan Missionary Society and President of Conference 1820, 1828, 1836 and 1844.
